

Luster Knight
Memorial Bench

*Steven Taylor Sanctity of Life Park at the San Leandro Marina
San Leandro, California*

Eight Stone/masonry Benches; each with a theme and informational sign behind the bench describing:

- 1) Reflection,
- 2) Remembrance,
- 3) Healing,
- 4) Justice,
- 5) Learning,
- 6) empathy,
- 7) strength,
- 8) caring

Decomposed granite trails meandering through native grass plantings. Combination of Stone/boulders painted with artwork and Stone/boulders engraved with text to remember Miles Hall, Oscar Grant, Stephon Clark, George Floyd, Patrick Warren Sr. and others TBD

Lawn Area

Stone sign "Steven Taylor Sanctity of Life Park"

Statue Symbolizing "Standing up or knelling for what is right" – even if doesn't fit within the norm of the times . Install 1960's Olympic and/or 2016 Colin Kaepernick civil rights statues.

Informational Kiosk with 4 separate touch screens (each face of kiosk) with information about Steven Taylor and the Sanctity of Every Human Life, Mental Health Services, Police Brutality, homelessness services, etc . Provide power and internet connection.

Stone Column (engraved with Steven's name, date of birth, attended San Leandro Bancroft Middle School and San Leandro High School ..additional detail TBD) centered within circular spaced benches

