What is a Public Art Master Plan?

- Seeks to engage various community stakeholders in visioning the direction of arts and culture in San Leandro.
- Affords the opportunity to review administrative processes and procedures to ensure they reflect national best practices.
- Provides recommendations to strengthen shared goals of the City to support long term viability of arts and culture in San Leandro.

Engaging Community

July 2016 through May 2017

- Individual interviews
- Focus Groups: Artists, Developers, Young Professionals
- Community Forums

Arts and Culture in San Leandro should:

- Be distributed throughout all neighborhoods of the city, focusing on areas where people gather and in unexpected places that encourage exploration.
- Represent a broad variety of artistic and performing arts media and forms of expression.
- Strive for artistic excellence.

Arts and Culture in San Leandro should:

- Provide meaningful arts opportunities for youth and families, including activities and events that engage parents and their children.
- Recognize cultural diversity, language, and access as integral features of all programs and activities to broaden participation in the arts.
- Include both permanent and temporary artwork.
- Support and build the local and regional artist community by offering affordable space to work, display their art, and spend time together. Engage partners to build support for the arts by collaborating with community organizations, businesses, and corporations

RECOMMENDATIONS

- 1. Adopt a 1% for art ordinance requiring private developers of new construction to allot 1% of the building permit valuation of $250,000 or more to on-site arts and/or cultural uses or to make a contribution in lieu of the project costs to a newly established Cultural Arts Fund to be used to support arts and culture in San Leandro.
- 2. Adopt a 1% for art ordinance requiring the City of San Leandro to allot 1% of the building permit valuation for new construction of $250,000 or more to on-site arts and/or cultural uses or to make a contribution in lieu of the project costs to a newly established Cultural Arts Fund to be used to support arts and culture in San Leandro.
- 3. Create an interest-bearing Cultural Arts Fund to account for cultural arts donations whose purpose is to receive gifts, grants, and donations for cultural arts that are made to the City of San Leandro.

RECOMMENDATIONS

4. Establish Cultural Arts Grants to support local non-profit arts and culture organizations for community-based arts activities within San Leandro limits.
5. Establish Artist Project Grants to support local artists in the creation and production of high quality visual and performing arts projects.
6. Adopt a Review and Acceptance of Gifts and Loans of Artwork Policy, with review and recommendation by the San Leandro Arts Commission and approval by City Council.
7. Adopt a Deaccession of Artwork policy for the removal and disposition of artwork on city-owned land and in city-owned facilities for review and recommendation by the San Leandro Arts Commission and approval by City Council.

RECOMMENDATIONS

8. Clarify the roles and responsibilities of the San Leandro Arts Commission.
9. Ensure ongoing and centralized support for successful administration of the arts and culture program by establishing an Arts and Culture Program with designated staff and placing it directly under the City Manager's Office.
10. Develop an annual Arts and Culture Work Plan with the assistance of a consultant, as needed, for review and approval by the San Leandro Arts Commission.
11. Establish new funding sources for arts and culture in San Leandro.

RECOMMENDATIONS

12. Develop artwork maintenance practices to insure the public art collection is in good condition.
