

A GHAD is a public agency, formed by a community to provide a management structure to address landslides, erosion, and other hazards.

