Who we are

The San Leandro Community Food Pantry is a volunteer run organization that provides food for our community.

Volunteers are everything

Day Time

10-15 volunteers per week

- pick up, record, sort, and organize donations
- clean pantry storage rooms
- prepare pet food bags

Evening

32 volunteers per distribution

- greet guests
- set up and take down
- distribute food

From Jan-Jun 2025

107 volunteers filled 828 shifts

2,898 hours

What we do

Grocery Recovery Program

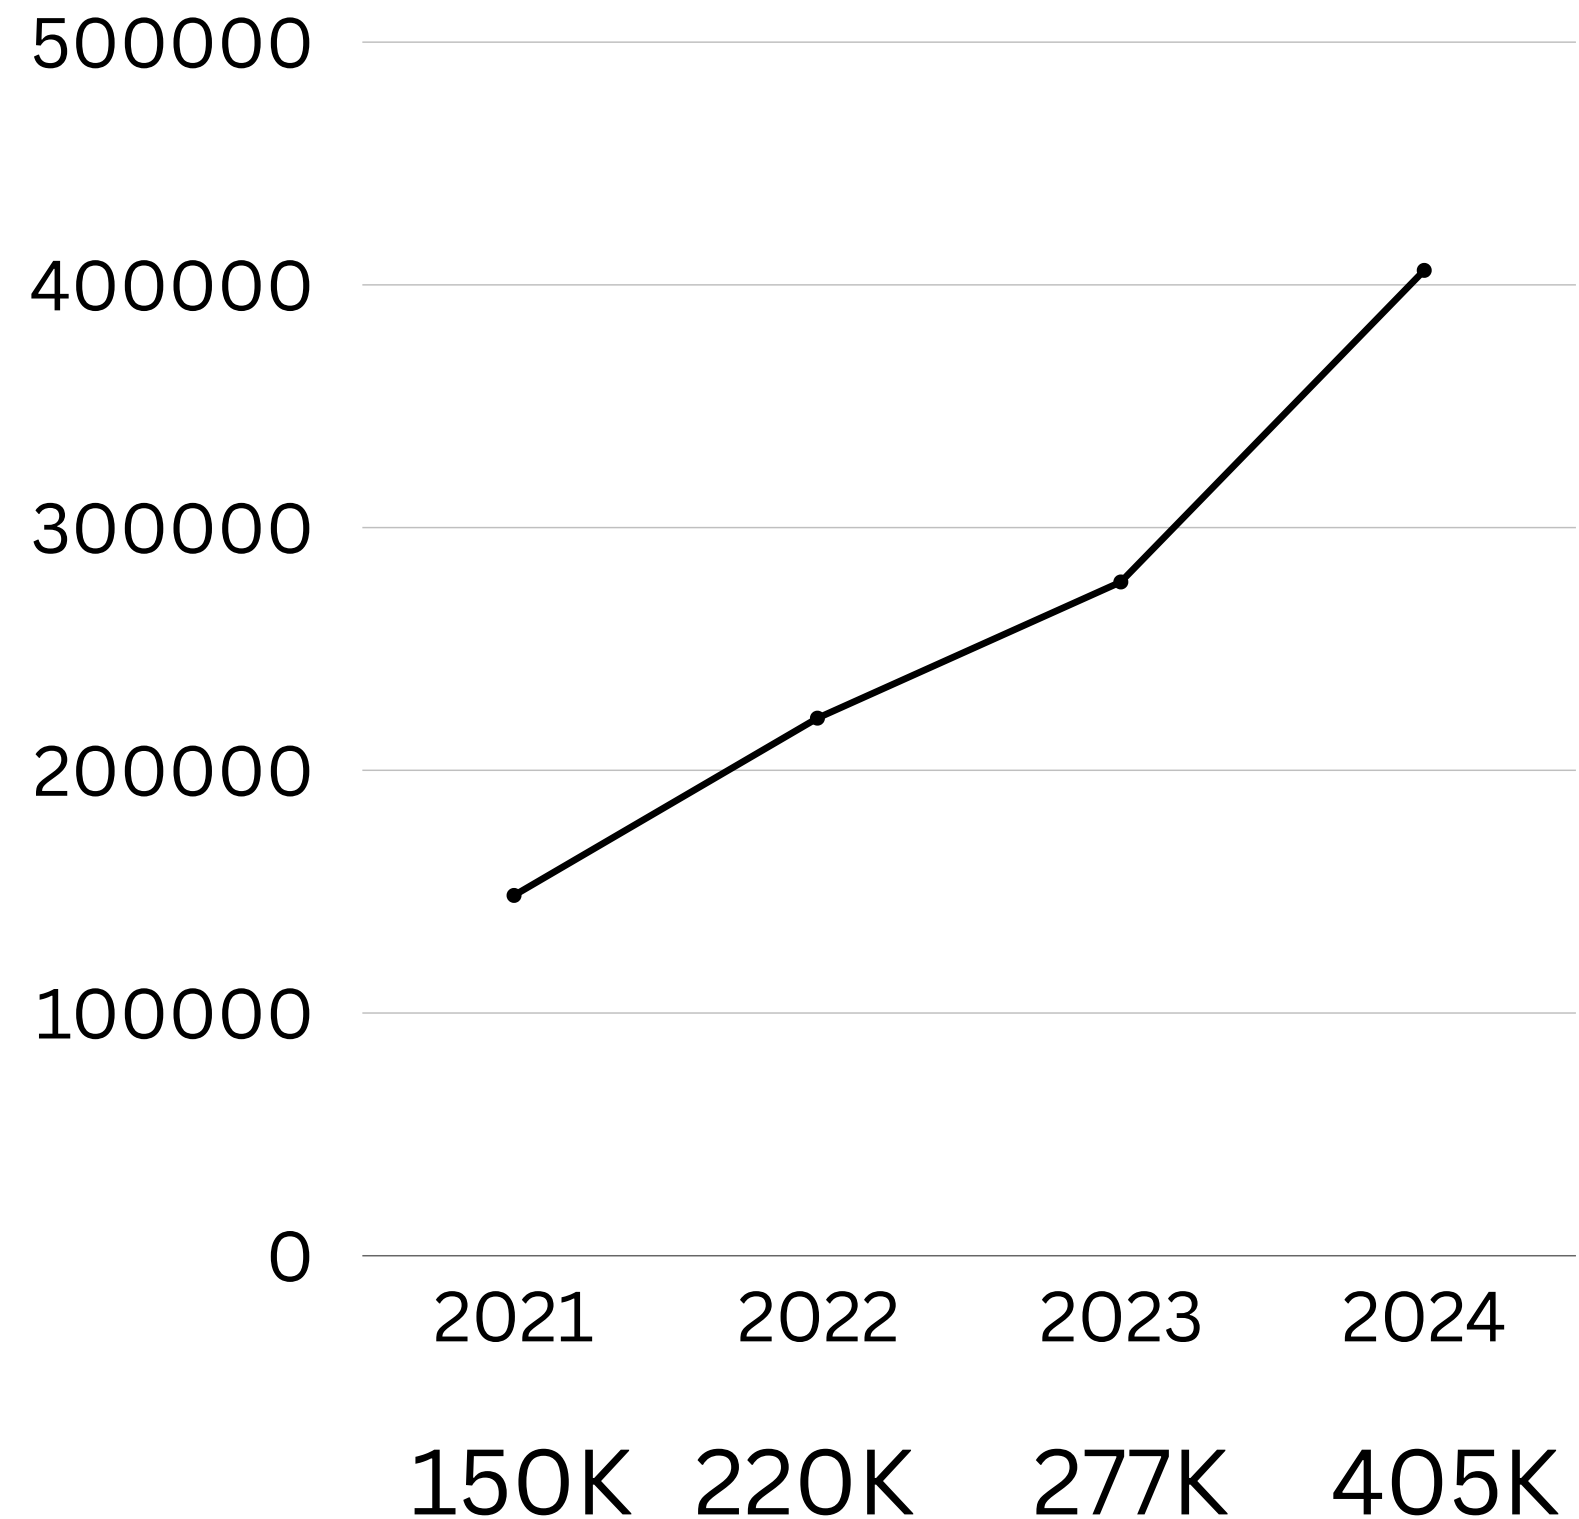

The Grocery Recovery Program through Feeding America and the Alameda County Community Food Bank allows us to pick up surplus food from participating grocery stores.

Fits the requirements of CA AB 1383 requiring the reduction of food sent to landfill to reduce greenhouse gas emissions

SLCFP currently picks up usable and nutritious food from 8 different organizations with 16 pick ups per week

Pounds of food saved from landfill

Every year our pantry keeps thousands of pounds of groceries from landfill

Satelite Pantry at April Showers

Provide Ready to Eat (RTE) 10lb. Food bags to homeless clients two or three times each month

RTE food has pop-tops and generally does not require a kitchen to prepare or store

- Canned tuna or chicken
- Shelf stable milk
- Hearty stews or chili
- Granola bars
- Peanut butter packets
- Apple Sauce packets

50-75 bags per month

Thursday Night Distribution

6:00 - 8:00 PM, Line starts at 5pm

Short registration process for new clients

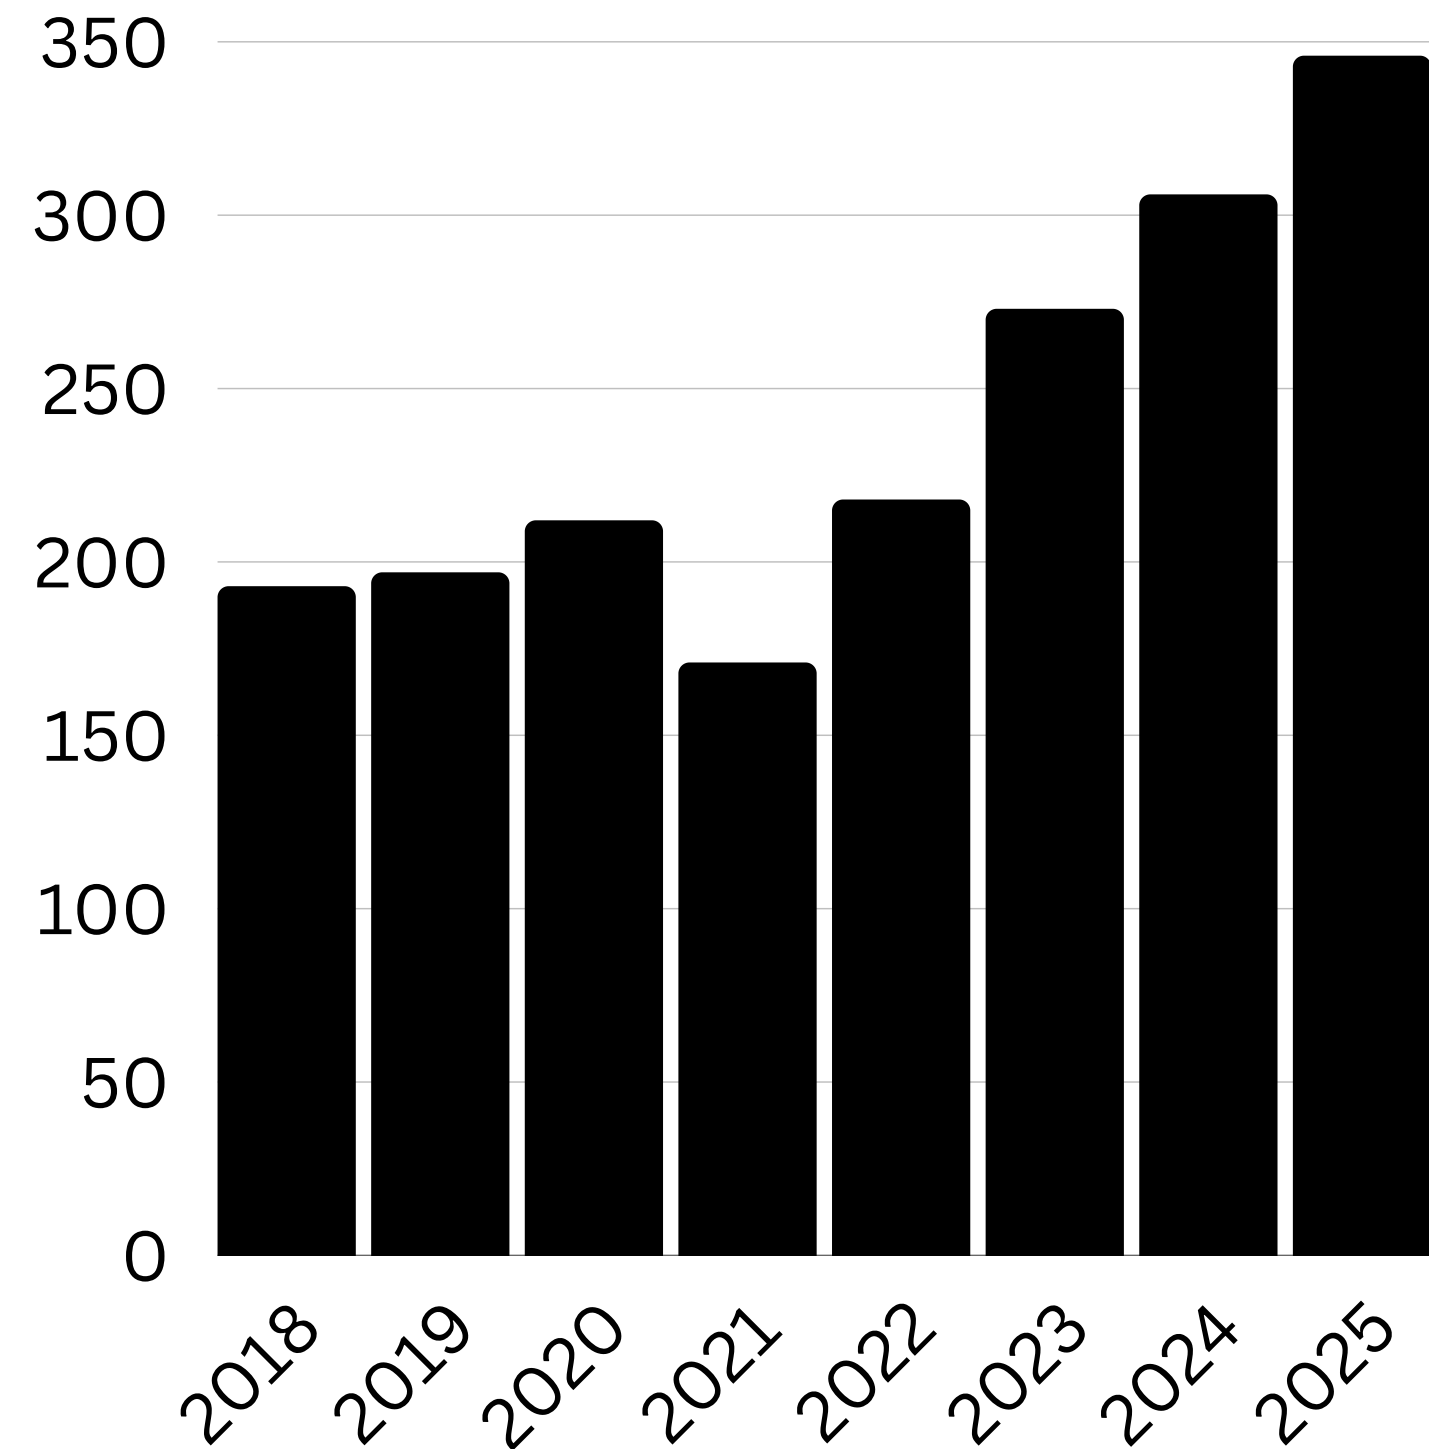

Client choice allows clients to make their own choices from offerings set up on tables. Food is continually restocked by volunteers

20-25 lbs of usable food per week

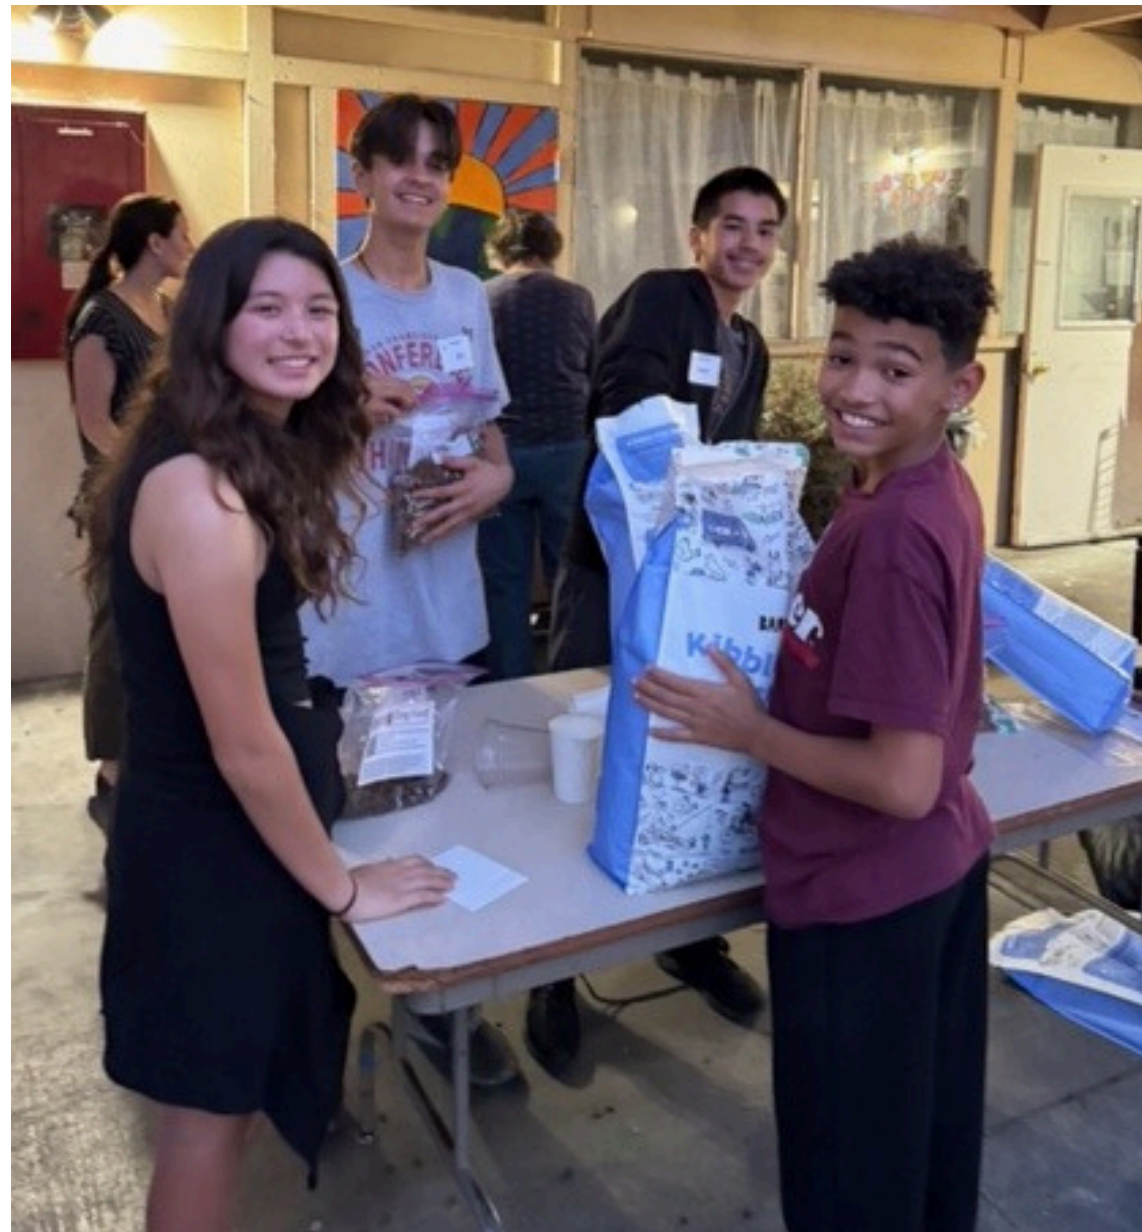

- Protein
- Dairy
- Deli Items
 - (cheese, hummus, McDonald portions)
- Staple items
 - dry beans, rice, pasta
- Pastries & baked sweets
- Fresh Fruits & Veggies
- Cereal & Snacks

Average clients served per week

The number of clients we serve each
Thursday continues to increase

SPCA Partnership

Thanks to a partnership with the East Bay SPCA we provide Cat and Dog food every 2nd and 4th Thursday

Jan-Jun 2025
