2. DISCUSSION ITEMS

2.A. Discussion Regarding City Camera Systems

City Attorney Richard Pio Roda, Senior Transportation Engineer Reh-Lin Chen, Captain Jamie

Knox and Public Works Director Debbie Pollart co-presented an update on the City's camera inventory.

Committee Requests/Direction to Staff:

- Mayor Cutter wants to begin discussion regarding contract expiration/renewal for Redflex well ahead of contract termination date of April 20, 2019 at first meeting in April 2018.
- Mayor Cutter requests creation of process for a data-driven request for cameras at new locations, particularly using analysis of current crime data/stats.
- Councilmember Lopez recommends researching increasing image resolution of cameras that have shorter retention periods.
- Councilmember Lopez recommends investigating installation of cameras along BRT route for transit user safety as City does not have access to existing Caltrans cameras along E. 14th nor do BRT cameras provide views of outside of planned bus stops.
- City Manager Zapata recommends review of best practices for collaboration with cameras maintained by homeowners and businesses.
- Mayor Cutter would like a recap of this presentation at a future Council meeting.
